wait ok just thank about this for a second do you ever thank god for feeling good or for a grandma, mom or dad well did you thank about way your thanking him some times cause i want you to thank about this ok you look at friends and say i'm sorry when their mom dies or your gets sick and then you'll thank good its not you your kinda happy in a way you get happy off of others miss fortions is that right i mean thank about it shouldn't you be thanking good for your life and the abilty to help others not for what he dose or dose not do for you so just take a second next time before you thank god cause it should be for the right reasons
