You are my friend
You are my brother
A hand to lend
A shoulder to borrow
Through my darkest despair
Through my deepest sorrow
You're always there
Your smile is the sun that awakens my morning glory
Your arms are my safety net
Your voice is my goodnight story
With you here I no longer need to fret
With you around my loneliness does flee
Forever we shall always be
Together as one small family
Till death comes 'round and the Lord takes you or me

(To the best friends I could ever have, River and Ryan. I love you guys more than my own family. You're the only two people who actually understands who I really am. Thank you for being there.

Your little sister,
Mimi)
